ECONOMIC AND SOCIOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS IN THE ECOMET

The transportation plan for the Autonomous Territory of Kosovo-Metohija has been substantially exceeded both for passengers and freight. Industrial production shows an advance since the first half of the year. Although efforts to increase crop yields.did not achieve the expected results, the croppurchase plan for white grains was exceeded 100 percent. Trade with rural districts is developing satisfactorily.

Provided for in this year's plan are 1,120 houses for emigrants and 174 cooperative houses. Twenty-nine farm workers' cooperatives have been established. Several new farm workers' cooperatives were founded recently by Albantans in the Pec district.

Over 21,000 Serbs and Albanians are excelled in elementary schools, and 40,000 persons have learned to read and write in literacy courses. About 13,000 new tembers have been recruited into industry, and about 600 young people have enrolled in technical courses.
